

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Some childhood passions last forever.

Learning Outcome

Use expressions about relationships and feelings in a range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Do you have a passion for a particular activity?
- Have you always had that passion?
- What was your passion when you were a child?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about friendships, feelings and reactions.
- I can talk about habits in the past.
- I can talk about people's past experiences.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa talks about when the cooking bug first bit her.

* When you are passionate about something, the "bug bites you". It's an expression you use to say that you are obsessed with an activity.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Peter told me about your new assignment for the magazine. I think you can write an engaging piece on this subject.
- Sally: I guess so. I like to keep my readers interested. I don't want them to feel bored when they read my articles.
- Vanessa: That's the key to a healthy relationship.
- Sally: Haha. Very true. Anyway, you're my next interviewee. Let's talk about your passion for cooking. When did it all start? When did you realize you wanted to become a chef?
- Vanessa: I've always loved to cook. I think I've read more cookbooks than novels in my life! When I was in primary school, I would go to the kitchen and help my mom. I used to chop vegetables for dinner and make pancakes on Sundays.
- Sally: Have you always kept a cooking diary?
- Vanessa: Yes. I used to write down every single step of my favorite recipes. We would try them out with friends at school. We used to make such a mess!
- Sally: That's so cool. I was a picky eater as a kid. I thought cooking was boring, too.
- Vanessa: Well, I'm glad that has changed. We wouldn't be best friends otherwise!

Let's Practice!

Vanessa shares her childhood memories. What did she use to* do?

*When you ask a question in the Past Simple, you use the verb in its base form. Example: I used to... What did she use to...?

Instruction: Read the sentences. Match Column A with Column B to complete the sentences.

COLUMN A

1. I used to _____ for dinner.
2. I would _____ on Sundays.
3. I used to _____ every single step of my favorite recipes.
4. We used to _____.
5. When I was in primary school I would _____ in the kitchen.

COLUMN B

- a. make pancakes
- b. write down
- c. make a mess
- d. chop vegetables
- e. help my mom

Let's Practice!

Vanessa is nostalgic* about the past.

*When you are "nostalgic" you remember the past fondly.

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

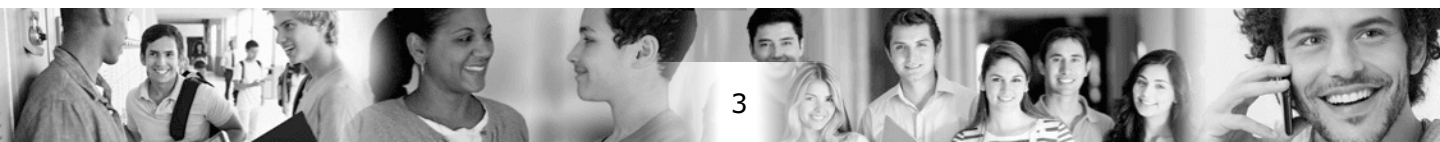

1. to / realize / become / you / did / a / you / chef / wanted / When / ?

2. have / cook / always / loved / to / I / .

3. I / think / novels / more / my / in / read / life / have / I / cookbooks / than / .

4. you / cooking / Have / kept / always / a/ ? / diary

5. over / has / changed / I'm / glad / on / cooking / opinion / the / your / years/.

Extension Activity

Write a diary entry about your life in high school.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a diary entry (10-14 lines) about how your life was in high school.
- Write about what you used to do regularly.
- Read your entry aloud to a partner. Talk about your partner's entry.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write about past events and experiences.

☐ ☐

I write about my habits in the past.

☐ ☐

I talk about my friendships, feelings and reactions.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- engaging (adjective): captivating and appealing e.g. I want to write an engaging piece about friendships.
- interviewee (noun): a person who is interviewed
e.g. You're my next interviewee for the article I'm writing.
- to keep (verb): to write information in e.g. Have you ever kept a cooking diary?
- step (noun): one part in a series of actions
e.g. I used to write down every single step of my favorite recipes.
- otherwise (conjunction): in another situation; apart from that e.g. I'm glad you like cooking. We wouldn't be friends otherwise!
- picky (adjective): difficult; fastidious
e.g. I was a picky eater as a kid.

Learning Points

Used to and Would

Would and used to have rather similar meanings. They are both used to describe something that happened regularly in the past but doesn't happen any longer.

However, there is an important difference between used to and would.

Would is not used unless you know that the time frame is in the past, while used to does not require this.

Read the following examples:

However, when would replaces used to, the same example becomes ungrammatical:

We would visit India. (not correct)

We would visit India every summer when we were children. (correct)

Be careful of the question form of used to.

Example: Did you use to go to India every summer?

Examples:

- I used to write down every single step of my favorite recipes!
- We would try them out with my friends at school.
- Did you use to write down the recipes?
- I wouldn't show them to anyone!

Present Perfect vs. The Simple Past Tense

1. We use the Present Perfect tense for actions which started in the past and are still happening now OR for finished actions which have a connection to the present.
2. We use the Simple Past tense for past events or actions which have no connection to the present.

Rule	Example	Explanation
The Present Perfect is used when the time period has NOT finished.	Have you always kept a cooking diary?	The time period goes up to the present.
The Simple Past is used when the time period HAS finished.	I was a picky eater as a kid.	I am not a picky eater anymore.

